About us

Overview of Scouting

We are the UK's biggest mixed youth organisation. We change lives by offering 4 to 25 year olds, fun and challenging activities, unique experiences, everyday adventure and the chance to help others so that we make a positive impact in communities.

Scouts helps children and young adults reach their full potential. Our members gain valuable skills for life including teamwork, time management, leadership, initiative, planning, communication, self-motivation, cultural awareness and commitment. We help young people to get jobs, save lives and even change the world.

What do Scouts do?

Scouts take part in a wide range of activities as diverse as kayaking, abseiling, expeditions overseas, photography, climbing and zorbing. As a Scout you can learn survival skills, first aid, computer programming or even how to fly a plane. There's something for everyone. It's a great way to have fun, make friends, get outdoors, express your creativity, and experience the wider world.

What do volunteers do?

This everyday adventure is only possible thanks to our team of adult volunteers, who support Scouts in a wide range of roles from working directly with young people, to helping manage a local community-based Group, to being a charity Trustee. We help volunteers get the most out of their experiences at Scouts by providing opportunities for adventure, training, fun and friendship.

Our award-winning training scheme for volunteers means that adults get as much from Scouts as young people. Our approach focuses on what you want to get out of volunteering with Scouts, while respecting how much time you can offer. Over 90% of Scout volunteers say that their skills and experiences have been useful in their work or personal life.

Key facts and figures

The Scout Association is a UK charity founded in 1907 and now boasts a membership of over 620,000 young people and adult leaders. We are the largest mixed youth movement in the UK. Scouting activity is delivered through 7,000-plus community-based Scout Groups nationwide.

Scouting is widely recognised and is one of the most trusted charities in the UK, giving it a significant level of influence and responsibility. Scouting's greatest strength lies in its grass roots. It is locally that Scouting is best able to identify and work directly with young people most in need.

We believe that through the everyday adventure of Scouting, young people and adult volunteers regularly experience new challenges that enrich and change their lives.

The current focus for the Trustees and those in Scouting in the UK is delivering our strategic vision.

Our strategy

A new strategic plan for Scouting across the UK is currently nearing completion to secure a strategic direction through to 2025 and to grow on the success of the current plan. Team UK (the team of commissioners that leads Scouting across the UK) will play a key part in leading the delivery of this strategy. More details on the work towards our new plan are available online.

By 2025 we will have prepared more young people with skills for life, supported by amazing leaders delivering an inspiring programme. We will be growing, more inclusive, shaped by young people and making a bigger impact in our communities.

Scouting's fundamentals

Our mission

Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society.

Our values

As Scouts, we are guided by these values:

Integrity

- 23 Cub Scouts (8 - 10 ½ year olds) within 1 Pack
- 17 Scouts (10 ½ - 14 year olds) within 1 Troop

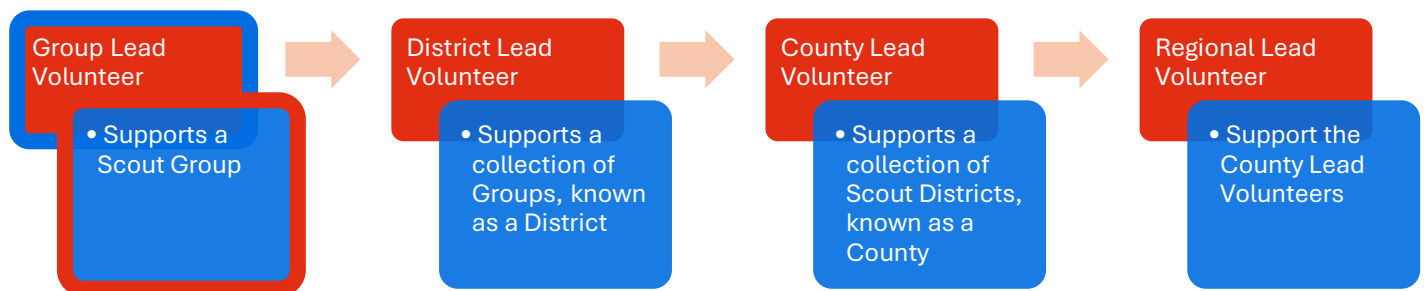

The current vacancy

We're currently looking for a Group Lead Volunteer. This is a management role, and we need someone who can provide leadership, motivation and guidance to our adult volunteers.

A large part of this role involves managing and supporting adult volunteers, including those working directly with young people. For any adult volunteer in scouting, their manager will be a regular port of call for support

You don't need any prior experience of Scouting to apply for this role, we'll make sure you're fully trained and supported.

The management structure of Scouting is as follows:

In addition to adult volunteers, Group Lead Volunteers also ensure that support is available at every level, so that all volunteers feel valued, motivated, inspired and focused on providing first-class Scouting for young people. The most successful Group Lead Volunteers recognise the importance of valuing the hard work of volunteers, seeks to ensure that they feel happy and supported week after week, and that they are thanked for what they do.

The Group Lead Volunteer provides direction for the Group and will help others see the bigger Scouting picture through their leadership.

We encourage everyone in management roles within Scouting to adopt an approach that combines the skills of both leadership and management.

Core Skill Areas

We've identified six core skill areas that make a good Scouting manager and leader:

1. Providing direction

A good Group Lead Volunteer will create a vision for Scouting in their Group and provide clear leadership to implement that vision.

2. Working with people

It is vital that a Group Lead Volunteer can create team spirit amongst the other volunteers they work with, and can form effective working relationships based on trust and the fundamental principles of Scouting:

- integrity
- respect
- care
- belief
- cooperation

3. Achieving results

Group Lead Volunteers ensure that goals are achieved, plans are seen through to completion, and that good relationships are maintained both with the parents / carers or guardians of the young people within the scout group and within the local community.

4. Enabling change

It is important for a Group Lead Volunteer to encourage volunteers to think of creative ways to improve Scouting across the Group. They should then provide the support to implement appropriate changes.

5. Using resources

A Group Lead Volunteer will ensure that information and resources are available, helping volunteers across the Group to continue to provide excellent Scouting opportunities to young people.

6. Managing time and personal skills

A good Group Lead Volunteer should use their time effectively and be willing to continue to learn and improve their skills.

We're looking for someone that can grow into the role

We are looking for an individual or team of people with the above skills to ensure that Scouting in Scunthorpe thrives. So, if you have some of the skills detailed and the drive and enthusiasm to develop Scouting in Scunthorpe, you could be the person we are looking for. You can expect to receive support and training as part of your development within this role.

How to apply

Process

Thank you for your interest in volunteering. On the following pages you will find a role description and the person specification. The Group Lead Volunteer's nomination and application forms are on the district website.

You can apply for the role yourself using the application form or nominate someone else using the nomination form. Nominated people are under no commitment to apply unless they wish to.

Shortlisting will be based solely on the information provided by each candidate in their application form. All applications should address the requirements of the role, as laid out in the role description and person specification.

Key dates
